

March 24, 2026

Regarding Recent Media Reports

Some media reported yesterday that an affiliated vessel passed through the Strait of Hormuz; however, this is not true. We are closely monitoring the situation with our Safety Operation Supporting Center that operates 24/7.

For employees, including seafarers working in the Middle East or travelling on business, we are closely following government guidelines and safety protocols and are keeping in touch with those on the ground.